SERIES: PREACHING THROUGH THE PSALMS

For the choir director; on Muth-labben.

A Psalm of David.

I will give thanks to the Lord with all my heart; I will tell of all Your wonders. I will be glad and exult in
You; I will sing praise to Your name,
O Most High.

Psalm 9:1-2 (NASB)

When my enemies turn back,
They stumble and perish
before You. For You have maintained my just cause;
You have sat on the throne
judging righteously.

Psalm 9:3-4

You have rebuked the nations, You have destroyed the wicked; You have blotted out their name forever and ever. The enemy has come to an end in perpetual ruins, and You have uprooted the cities; the very memory of them has perished.

Psalm 9:5-6

But the Lord abides forever;
He has established His throne
for judgment, and He will judge
the world in righteousness;
He will execute judgment for
the peoples with equity.

Psalm 9:7-8

The Lord also will be a stronghold for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble;
and those who know Your name
will put their trust in You, for You, O Lord, have not forsaken those who seek You.

Psalm 9:9-10

Sing praises to the Lord, who dwells in Zion; declare among the peoples His deeds. For He who requires blood remembers them; He does not forget the cry of the afflicted.
