MAIN READING

Judges 6: 33-40 NASB

33 Then all the Midianites, the Amalekites, and the [d]people of the east assembled together; and they crossed over and camped in the Valley of Jezreel.

34 So the Spirit of the LORD [e]covered Gideon like clothing; and he blew a trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called together to follow him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout Manasseh, and they also were called together to follow him; and he sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they came up to meet them.

Sign of the Fleece

36 Then Gideon said to God, “If You are going to save Israel [f]through me, as You have spoken,

37 behold, I am putting a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then I will know that You will save Israel [g]through me, as You have spoken.” 38 And it was so.

When he got up early the next morning and wrung out the fleece, he wrung the dew from the fleece, a bowl full of water. 39 Then Gideon said to God, “Do not let Your anger burn against me, so that I may speak only one more time; please let me put You to the test only one more time with the fleece: let it now be dry only on the fleece, and let there be dew on all the ground.” 40 And God did so that night; for it was dry only on the fleece, and dew was on all the ground.

Psalm 89:34-35 King James Version

34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

35 Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David.

34 So the Spirit of the LORD [e]covered Gideon like clothing; and he blew a trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called together to follow him.

36 Then Gideon said to God, “If You are going to save Israel [f]through me, as You have spoken,
37 behold, I am putting a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then I will know that You will save Israel [g]through me, as You have spoken.”

39 Then Gideon said to God, “Do not let Your anger burn against me, so that I may speak only one more time; please let me put You to the test only one more time with the fleece: let it now be dry only on the fleece, and let there be dew on all the ground.”

40 And God did so that night; for it was dry only on the fleece, and dew was on all the ground.

Matthew 17:20 NKJ

So Jesus said to them, “Because of your unbelief; for assuredly, I say to you, if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.

Judges 7: 2

And the LORD said to Gideon, “The people who are with you are too many for Me to hand Midian over to them, otherwise Israel would [c]become boastful, saying, ‘My own [d]power has saved me.’ 3 Now therefore come, proclaim in the hearing of the people, saying, ‘Whoever is afraid and worried, is to return and leave Mount Gilead.’” So twenty-two thousand from the people returned, but ten thousand remained.

Judges 7 .”

5 So he brought the people down to the water. Then the LORD said to Gideon, “You shall put everyone who laps the water with his tongue as a dog laps [e]in one group, and everyone who kneels down to drink in another.”

6 Now the number of those who lapped, [f]putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people kneeled down to drink water.

7 And the LORD said to Gideon, “I will save you with the three hundred men who lapped, and will hand the Midianites over to you; so have all the other people go, each man to his [g]home.”

8 So [h]the three hundred men took the people’s provisions and their trumpets in their hands. And [i]Gideon dismissed all the other men of Israel, each to his tent, but retained the three hundred men; and the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

Judges 7: 9

9 Now on the same night it came about that the LORD said to him, “Arise, go down against the camp, for I have handed it over to you.

10 But if you are afraid to go down, go with Purah your servant down to the camp,

11 so that you will hear what they say; and afterward [j]you will have the courage to go down against the camp.” So he went down with Purah his servant.

Judges 7: 13

When Gideon came, behold, a man was relating a dream to his friend. And he said, “Behold, I [m]had a dream; [n]a loaf of barley bread was tumbling into the camp of Midian, and it came to the tent and struck it so that it fell, and turned it [o]upside down so that the tent collapsed.”

14 And his friend replied, “This is nothing other than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; God has handed over to him Midian and all the camp.”

Psalm 37:39-40

GOD'S WORD Translation

39 The victory for righteous people comes from the LORD.

He is their fortress in times of trouble.

40 The LORD helps them and rescues them.

He rescues them from wicked people.

He saves them because they have taken refuge in him.

Judges 7: 18

When I and all who are with me blow the trumpet, then you also blow the trumpets around the entire camp and say, 'For the LORD and for Gideon!'

Judges 7: 20B –

they held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands for blowing, and shouted, “A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!”

Judges 7: 25

And they captured the two leaders of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb, and they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and they killed Zeeb at the wine press of Zeeb

Judges 8:28 – 29

28 So Midian was subdued before the sons of Israel, and they did not lift up their heads anymore. And the land was undisturbed for forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house.
